Terms of sale:

The consignee is required to return stamped original customs documentation to the consignor within 30 days from delivery to prove export and for VAT refund purposes, alternatively the consignor will bill the consignee non-export pricing and add South African VAT.

Please ensure that the full amount on this invoice is transferred from a non-South African account into our account, the consignor is not responsible for the relevant bank fees.

The goods remain the property of the consignor until payment is received in full.

The consignor cannot be held liable for goods damaged, stolen or lost during transit, the consignor will insure the load against these risks.

Any insurance claims must be filed with 7 days of delivery.

The consignee is responsible for the payment of customs and import duties to the clearing agents prior to the goods reaching the border.

Any transport, demurrage or storage costs resulting from delays caused by late payment of customs and import duties will be billed to the consignee.

The consignor will hold original invoices, warranties or guarantees.

Faulty equipment must be returned to the consignor without tampering for repair or replacement.

Please notify us in writing within 5 days of delivery should you discover any defects or faults with the products.

Products cannot be returned more than 7 days after delivery or without their original packaging and parts.
